

•
•
•
•

NEWS from the CWC

For immediate release

Contact: Diane Galusha, 845-586-1400 ext. 29

Delhi artist exhibits at CWC

MARGARETVILLE, January 12, 2010 -- Fifteen colorful and evocative landscapes by Delhi artist Carol A. Steene are on view at the Catskill Watershed Corporation's office, 905 Main Street, Margaretville, through March 26.

"A Walk Through the Seasons," from a snowy view out a window of the Hamden Covered Bridge, to a springtime look at Lake Wawaka in Halcottsville, can be viewed during regular business hours, Monday through Friday, 8 a.m. to 4:30 p.m. The CWC is closed January 18 and February 15.

Artist Steene specializes in watercolor, but also works in oil, pastel and acrylic. She enjoys experimenting on different surfaces, and looking for interesting light and shadow patterns for solid compositions.

Steene studied illustration and design at the Fashion Institute of Technology in New York City and began exhibiting in the Hudson Valley in 1995 and in Delaware County in 2000. She received an honorable mention at a juried show in Poughkeepsie. Her work is in the permanent collection at the MURAL Gallery in Stamford, and has lately been seen at group shows at the Vivianna Hansen Gallery in Franklin, and Delhi Antiques and Fine Art. Prints are available at Casa Art Gallery in Andes and Rachel's Framing and Fine Art, Delhi.

The CWC is a non-profit organization based in Margaretville. It is committed to protecting water resources, encouraging environmentally friendly economic development and supporting watershed education in the New York City Watershed West of the Hudson River, a region encompassing parts of five counties – Delaware, Greene, Schoharie, Sullivan and Ulster.

end