CWC Board schedules special meeting January 28

MARGARETVILLE, January 22, 2010 – The Catskill Watershed Corporation (CWC) Board of Directors will hold a special meeting Thursday, January 28, 2010 at 10 a.m. at Corporation offices, 905 Main St., Margaretville.

Board President Georgianna Lepke called the meeting to discuss implications of the recent pharmaceutical disposal enforcement actions brought against Watershed health care institutions by the New York State Attorney General's office.

The next regular meeting of the Board is Tuesday, February 2 at 1 p.m. The public is welcome to attend all CWC Board and Committee meetings. A schedule and Minutes from past Board meetings can be found at www.cwconline.org.

The CWC is a non-profit organization committed to protecting water resources, encouraging environmentally friendly economic development, and supporting watershed education in the New York City Watershed West of the Hudson River, a region encompassing parts of five counties – Delaware, Greene, Schoharie, Sullivan and Ulster.
