

Andes Central School – www.andescentralschool.org/

Andes Central School is located in Delaware County and serves grades K-12.

Project #1: The Ecology of the New York City Watershed

The CWC funds will be used to purchase more advanced equipment as well as needed classroom and field supplies that will help further develop and implement a program for grades 5-12. In addition, students will be learning and charting coordinates and topography through the use of GPS units.

Contact:

Ed McGee
Andes Central School
845-676-3166
myorchard2@yahoo.com

Project #2: DVD on the History of Farming in Andes

The CWC funds will be used to produce a digitalized multi media DVD about the History of Farming in Andes. ACS will also purchase more advanced equipment to further enhance the project outcome.

Contact:

Colleen Heavey
845-676-3166
bovina@dmcom.net

National Audubon Society – www.ny.audubon.org/

The National Audubon Society's mission is to conserve and restore birds, other wildlife and their habitats for the sake of humanity and the earth's biological diversity.

The Project: Audubon Adventures' Water Education Project & New York State Dragonfly Survey.

The CWC funds will be used to purchase assessment materials and to train teachers and children in the Odonate Survey Protocol. Students from 3 schools will help Audubon staff catch, identify, photograph, and release the dragonflies.

Contact:

Larry Federman
212-979-3184
lfederman@audubon.org

Bennett Elementary – Onteora Central School District – www.onteora.k12.ny.us

Bennett Elementary is located in Ulster County and serves grades K-6.

The Project: Ashokan Field Campus / Frost Valley Environmental Center

The CWC funds will be used to help support their environmental studies program and send the 6th grade students to Frost Valley Environmental Education Center.

Contact:

Dr. Laurie Cassel

845-657-2354

lcassel@onteora.k12.ny.us

Bronx Academy High School

The Bronx Academy High School is a public high school with over 512 students.

The Project: Macroinvertebrate Round-Up: Neversink vs. the Bronx

The CWC funds will be used to allow students to compare and contrast the macroinvertebrates from different locations along the Bronx River, take an overnight trip to Frost Valley YMCA and take leaf packs from the Neversink River to the service gates of the Bronx Zoo so other school groups can participate.

Contact:

Mr. Robert Ward

718-378-4646

Robert.Ward1@verizon.net

Delaware Academy & Delhi Central School - www.delhischools.org/main.asp

Delaware Academy & Delhi Central School is located in Delaware County and serves grades K-12.

The Project: Frost Valley Environmental Education Classes

The CWC funds will be used to take 90 earth science students to Frost Valley for an outdoor experience which enhances concepts discussed in the classroom.

Contact:

Mark Kline

607-746-2103

mkline@delhischools.org

The Earth School

The Earth School, a New York City public school, is an ecological institute which maintains a core curriculum that fosters environmental awareness through studies of the natural world and the local community. It is located on the Lower East Side in Community School District One.

The Project: Watershed Exploration and Resource Awareness Program (WERA)

The CWC funds will be used to take 4th and 5th grade students to Frost Valley for 5 days of Watershed Awareness Education.

Contact:

Michelle Harring
212-477-1735
m.harring@verizon.net

Friends of PS 166

Friends of PS 166 provides support to PS 166 to increase staff, improve the physical infrastructure and augment education materials, as well as provide for other student-centered activities.

Project #1: Water Supply Field Trip: Frost Valley YMCA Environmental Education Center

The CWC funds will be used to provide students with hands on experience studying water ecology and conservation in the Catskills.

Project #2: NYC – Catskill Water Resource Curriculum Expansion

The CWC funds will be used to expand the ecological and geographical study of NYC – Catskill water resources at PS166

Contact:

Marit Larson
212-678-2826
jbfrem@aol.com

Gilboa-Conesville Central School - www.gilboa-conesville.k12.ny.us

Gilboa-Conesville Central School is located in Schoharie County near the Gilboa Dam.

The Project: Watershed education

The CWC funds will be used to create and publish a book about our watershed, develop an outdoor garden, and publish hiking guides

Contact:

Michelle Fleischman
607-588-7541
hikergirl77@yahoo.com

Hunter-Tannersville Central School – www.huntertannersvillecsd.org

The Hunter-Tannersville Central School is located in Greene County.

The Project: Ashokan Visit

The CWC funds will be used to take the fourth graders to Ashokan Field Campus to engage in its Watershed Program.

Contact:

Megan Ingalls

518-589-5400

mingalls@huntertannersvillecsd.org

Indie Tributaries Project

The Indie Program is an after-school program at the Onteora High School in Ulster County.

The Project: Indie Tributaries Project

The CWC funds will be used to create a media-based project on watershed issues linking NYC and Upstate students.

Contact:

Peter Griffin

845-657-5100

peterg@jucms.org

Jefferson Central School

Jefferson Central School is located in Schoharie County.

The Project: Overnight Trip to Frost Valley.

The CWC funds will be used to send 7th graders to Frost Valley Environmental Education Center.

Contact:

Joe Henry

607-652-7821

hwscout@dmcom.net

Liberty Central School District - www.libertyk12.org

Liberty Central School is located in Sullivan County.

Project #1: Field Sampling and Identification of Macroinvertebrates in the Neversink River

The CWC funds will be used to give students hands-on experience in field sampling and water quality assessment both within and outside the Neversink Reservoir basin.

Project #2: Streamwatch, Trout in the Classroom and Model Forest Tour.

The CWC Funds will be used to give students the hands-on experience in subjects relating to the study of ecology.

Contact:

Kevin Ferguson

845-292-5400

fergusokev@libertyk12.org

Museum of the City of New York – www.mcny.org

Since 1923, the museum of the City of New York has been the city's official museum, the only institution focused on the past, present, and the future of the city.

The Project: New York Watershed Map for Children

The CWC funds will be used to complete production of a Watershed Map for Children to establish and enhance understanding of the New York City water supply system and watersheds.

Contact:

Jennifer Juzaitis

212-534-1672

jjuzaitis@mcny.org

Phipps Community Development Corporation - www.phippsny.org

Phipps Community Development Corporation was established in 1972 as the human services affiliate of Phipps Houses. Their mission is to provide direct program services to help children, youth and adults lead safe and productive lives, succeed in school and work, achieve economic security, and build enduring communities.

The Project: "Our Water, Our Lives"

The CWC funds will be used to implement hands-on and interactive educational program where 2nd – 12th grade after-school students and community residents in the West Farms community will increase their understanding of the elements of a watershed, of fragile habitats supported by bodies of water, and will learn to make connections between the sources of their drinking water and themselves.

Contact:

Jeannette Corey

718-542-8333

jcorey@hippsny.org

Phoenicia Elementary School – <http://onteoraschoolwires.com/phoenicia/site/default.asp>

The Phoenicia Elementary School is located in Ulster County and is part of the Onteora School District.

The Project: Exploring Our Watershed

The CWC Funds will be used to provide students with the opportunity for hands-on study of the Stony Clove Stream and to teach them and the school community more about the history and workings of the Watershed.

Contact:

Veronica Rowe

845-688-5580

vfro@aol.com

Pine Hill Community Center – www.pinehillcommunitycenter.org

The Pine Hill Community Center is dedicated to enriching the lives of the people in the Central Catskills Region by providing community-building activities that nurture creativity and life-long growth.

The Project: The Watershed, My Home

The CWC funds will be used to provide Phoenicia 5th and 6th graders with pond and forest studies, hands-on experiences, outdoor adventure and contact with our area elders to discuss Watershed history.

Contact:

James Krueger

845-254-5469

info@pinehillcommunitycenter.org

Zadock Pratt Museum, Inc. - www.prattmuseum.com

The Zadock Pratt Museum located in Prattsville, is dedicated to exhibiting the history and culture of the Northern Catskill Region during the mid-nineteenth century.

The Project: Community: The Prattsville-Gilboa Connection

The CWC funds will be used to mat and frame old Gilboa photographs to be used as educational tools for elementary students.

Contact:

Nancy Boulin

518-299-3395

boulin-goldn@hartwick.edu

PS 19

PS 19 is a Public School in Queens.

The Project: From the Catskills to Corona, A Collaboration between Two Schools in New York City's Water System.

The CWC funds will be used to create a musical collaboration between PS19 and Tri-Valley Central School students. The Hudson River Ramblers, traditional musicians, will work with the students to produce a CD of water and watershed-related songs in Grahamsville.

Contact:

Jack Cohn

718-424-5859

mrjack48@aol.com

Research Foundation on behalf of Brooklyn College

The Project: City That Drinks the Mountain Sky Teachers Guide

The CWC funds will be used to develop a standards-based teachers' guide to supplement the City that Drinks the Mountain Sky.

Contact:

Eleanor Miele

718-951-5061

emiele@brooklyn.cuny.edu

Research Foundation of SUNY on behalf of SUNY New Paltz

The Project: John Burroughs: A Naturalist in the Industrial Age – Roxbury-born

The CWC funds will be used to make an educational video and lesson plans on naturalist John Burroughs for middle-school students.

Contact:

Dr. Lynn Spangler

845-255-5348

spanglel@newpaltz.edu

Roxbury Central School - www.roxburycs.org

Roxbury Central School is located in Delaware County.

The Project: Nature's Keepers

The CWC funds will be used to bring the 7th grade Roxbury School students together with Pink Elephant preschoolers for hands-on experiences that will help the preschoolers understand what the Watershed is, the importance of caring for the natural environment, and how stewardship activities ultimately affect water quality.

Contact:

Frank Bibbo

607-326-4151

fbibbo@roxburycs.org

PS3 – School Community Council

The School Community Council (SCC) is the parent-teacher association of PS3, with the mission to support the work of the school located in Manhattan.

The Project: Enhancing Frost Valley Study

The CWC funds will be used to continue and expand the Frost Valley Study, a watershed education program with classroom lessons and a three-day residential program in Frost Valley.

Contact:

Shino Tanikawa
212-226-6467
shinot@aol.com

The Roxbury Arts Group – www.roxburyartsgroup.org

The Roxbury Arts Group is an arts and culture organization and community center in Delaware County.

The Project: Nature and Art for Kids

The CWC funds support a one-week summertime educational youth program promoting watershed awareness through artistic expression.

Contact:

Susan Kenny
607-326-7908
skenny@roxburyartsgroup.org

Rocking the Boat, Inc - www.rockingtheboat.org

Rocking the Boat is a boatbuilding and on-water education program based in southwest Bronx.

The Project: Watershed Exploration at Frost Valley YMCA

The CWC funds will be used to provide Rocking the Boat students with an opportunity to explore the importance of the Catskill watershed in relation to their local drinking water supply.

Contact:

Tony Archino
718-466-5799
tony@rockingtheboat.org

Sidney High School

Sidney High School is located in Delaware County.

The Project: Trout in the Classroom

The CWC funds will be used to initiate a Trout in the Classroom program at the Sidney High School.

Contact:

Todd Paternoster
607-563-2135
tpaternoster@sidney.k12.ny.us

South Kortright Central School - www.skcs.org

South Kortright Central School is located in Delaware County.

The Project: Sustainable Agriculture & Stewardship

The CWC funds will be used to establish an aquaponics program to educate students on the importance of sustainable agriculture practices to preserve water quality.

Contact:

Jill Lutz
607-538-9111
jlutz@skcs.org

South Street Seaport Museum –www.southstseaport.org

The South Street Seaport Museum is a twelve-square-block historic district in lower Manhattan.

The Project: For Learning on Water (FLOW)

The CWC funds will be used to offer an in-school lesson, a sail aboard Pioneer, and a session in the Wet Lab to 150 NYC public school students to learn about the importance of the West of Hudson Watershed, to understand water quality, and to connect these elements with the local waters of New York Harbor.

Contact:

Margaret Flanagan
212-748-8600
mflanagan@southstseaport.org

Trout Unlimited – www.tu.org

Trout Unlimited protects, conserves, and restores America's coldwater fisheries and their watersheds and administers the highly regarded Trout in the Classroom Program.

The Project: Trout in the Classroom – Education Outreach Project

The CWC funds will be used to support TIC Coordinator travel and education outreach to WOH and NYC classrooms.

Contact:

Rochelle Gandour
718-595-3503
rgandour@tu.org

Walton Central School – www.waltoncsd.stier.org

Walton Central School is located in Delaware County.

The Project: Trout in the Classroom

The CWC funds will be used to introduce Trout in the Classroom to students in the Agriculture Science, Environmental Science, and Veterinary Science Technology Classes.

Contact:

Tina Miner-James

607-865-4116

tjames@waltoncsd.stier.org